

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

United States of America,

No. 19-cr-20096

Plaintiff,

Hon. Mark A. Goldsmith

v.

Devin Jamal Walker,

Offense(s):

18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(2)

Receipt of Child Pornography

Defendant.

Minimum and Maximum Penalty:

60-240 months imprisonment (Count 1)

Maximum Fine:

Not to exceed $250,000

Mandatory Supervised Release:

5 years up to life

Rule 11 Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant Devin Jamal Walker and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Count of Conviction

The defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count One of the Information, which charges him with receipt of child pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(2).

B. Elements of Offense(s)

The elements of Count One are as follows:

- 1) The defendant knowingly received child pornography.
- 2) The defendant knew that the material was child pornography.
- 3) The child pornography was mailed using any means or facility of interstate commerce, or shipped or transported in or affecting interstate commerce by any means, including by computer.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for the defendant's guilty plea:

Walker knowingly produced and received child pornography of multiple minor females including, but not limited to: MV-1 (who was 13 years old), MV-2 (who was 15 years old), and MV-4 (who was 14 years old). Walker knew that the material he produced and received was child pornography. In all, Walker had 31 videos (including videos involving penetration) and 105 images of child pornography on his electronic devices. He received all of these images and videos and communicated with these minors from his residence in the Eastern District of Michigan.

Walker's actions took place between the dates of 2015 and the date of his arrest in November of 2018. Walker communicated with his victims on the Internet and received and produced the images and videos using the Internet. Walker threatened the girls he targeted, including MV-1, MV-2, and MV-4, if they resisted his demands for pornographic images. In addition to his legal name, Walker also used the alias Devion Jones in connection with the offense. Even after the FBI collected electronic devices used by Walker to produce and receive child pornography and warned him to discontinue his actions, he continued to reach out to victims and engage in sexually explicit conversations with them.

MV-1: In June 2018, Walker communicated with MV-1 through the smartphone applications Kik (accounts “swift._nickel” and “radiance.energy”) and Google Hangouts (account “fighting dreamer devo,” associated with the email address devinwalker.d12@gmail.com). MV-1 was 13 years old at the time. Walker asked MV-1 to take pictures of herself and send them to him through Kik. She sent him four photographs of herself partially clothed. Walker sent her two images and two videos, including images of his face and penis. Based on MV-1’s statements, some of the images Walker received of MV-1 met the federal definition of child pornography.

On June 18, 2018, Walker demanded more images of MV-1. She refused; he became angry and threatened her. During a Google Hangouts conversation that day, in an attempt to coerce MV-1 into sending him additional images, Walker threatened to show others the pictures MV-1 had previously sent and told her “I can ruin your life and have you killed, make a damn choice.”

MV-2: Walker was in an online dating-type relationship with MV-2 starting in or before 2015. MV-2 was 15 years old at the time. On May 5, 2017, Walker took a screenshot of MV-2 containing two different images—one depicting her exposing her breasts and face, and the other depicting her nude buttocks. Walker tagged the pictures with MV-2’s name and the message “[MV-2] We WANNA Be PETTY Right?” Walker was prepared to post the screenshot to Facebook.

At his request, MV-2 sent Walker numerous additional images and videos, more than ten of which constitute child pornography—for example, one video created on January 10, 2016 depicts MV-2 displaying her buttocks and slapping them, bending over and spreading them to display her genitals, turning around and raising a leg to display her genitals and touch her vagina with her hand, and then turning back around to show her buttocks again. MV-2 has not been located.

MV-4: Walker also enticed MV-4, a 14-year old girl, to send him images that met the federal definition of child pornography. For example, he directed her to get on all fours and to send him an image displaying her vagina in that pose. MV-4 complied, and this image (which meets the federal definition of child pornography) was recovered from Walker’s devices. MV-4 has not been identified.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, the defendant's guideline range is 240 months (20Y). If the Court finds:

1. That the defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or
2. that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, the defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense; or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 240 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. However, if the Court finds that the defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different from any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C) the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the top of the sentencing guideline range as determined by Paragraph 2B. The sentence of imprisonment must be at least 60 months, but may not exceed 240 months.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release follows the term of imprisonment. The Court must impose a term of supervised release, which in this case is at least 5 years. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that results from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

The defendant will pay a special assessment of $5,000.00 at the time of sentencing.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

The Court shall order restitution to every identifiable victim of the defendant's offense. See 18 U.S.C. § 2259. The defendant agrees to pay restitution in the amount of $5,000 to any identified victim associated with his conduct from August 23, 2015, through December 14, 2018. The term "identified victim" means a victim whose identity is able to be discovered or confirmed through diligent investigation by the time of sentencing. Any identified victim still maintains a right to request a larger amount of restitution from the Court, but the defendant agrees to pay a minimum of $5,000 per identified victim.

4. SORNA/Adam Walsh Act

The defendant understands that by pleading guilty in this case, he will be required to register as a sex offender, under both federal and state registration requirements. As a condition of his release from prison on supervised release in this case, the defendant will be obligated to promptly register under the federal sex offender registry. The defendant may also be required to register under the law of the state in which he resides, as well as any state where he has significant contacts (including any state where he resides, works, attends school, or otherwise has significant contacts). The defendant further understands that he will be required to maintain and update his registration for at least twenty years, and potentially for the rest of his life.

5. Use of Withdrawn Guilty Plea

If the Court allows the defendant to withdraw his guilty plea for a “fair and just reason” pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(B), the defendant waives his rights under Fed. R. Evid. 410, and the government may use his guilty plea, any statement made under oath at the change-of-plea hearing, and the factual basis statement in this plea agreement, against him in any proceeding.

6. Each Party’s Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B.

The defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3. This is the only reason for which the defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise the defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3.

7. Appeal Waiver

The defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction on any grounds. The defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment is at least 240 months, the government waives any right it may have to appeal the defendant's sentence.

This waiver does not bar filing a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel in court.

8. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea or Vacation of Conviction

If the defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against the defendant within six months after the date the order vacating the defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, the defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

9. Collateral Consequences of Conviction

The defendant understands that his conviction(s) here may carry additional consequences under federal and state law, including the potential loss of the right to vote, right to carry a firearm, right to serve on a jury, and ability to hold certain licenses or to be employed in certain fields. The defendant further understands that, if he is not a native-born citizen of the United States, there may be adverse immigration consequences resulting from conviction. These include possible removal from the United States, denial of citizenship, denaturalization, denied admission to the United States in the future, and other possible consequences. The defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the Court, can predict to a certainty the effect of the defendant's conviction on any of these matters. The defendant nevertheless affirms that he chooses to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences or other collateral consequences of his conviction.

10. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

11. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to the defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before the defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if the defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against the defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

12. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 5:00 P.M. on 04/15/2019. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before the defendant pleads guilty.

INSTRUCTIONS

STEP 1: Determine if any of the counts group under §3D1.2(a)–(d) (“the grouping rules”). All, some, or none of the counts may group. Some of the counts may have already been grouped in the application under Worksheet A, specifically: (1) counts grouped under §3D1.2(d); or (2) a count charging conspiracy, solicitation, or attempt that is grouped with the substantive count of conviction (see §3D1.2(a)). Explain the reasons for grouping:

STEP 2: Using the box(es) provided below, for each group of “closely related counts” (i.e., counts that group together under any of the four grouping rules), enter the highest adjusted offense level from Item 5 of the various Worksheets “A” that comprise the group. See §3D1.3. Note that a “group” may consist of a single count that has not grouped with any other count. In those instances, the offense level for the group will be the adjusted offense level for the single count.

STEP 3: Enter the number of units to be assigned to each group (see §3D1.4) as follows:

- One unit (1) for the group of counts with the highest offense level
- An additional unit (1) for each group that is equally serious or 1 to 4 levels less serious
- An additional half unit (1/2) for each group that is 5 to 8 levels less serious
- No increase in units for groups that are 9 or more levels less serious
